Jonathan Field has spent his entire career at MSZL&M, spanning over four decades. He has had the remarkable experience of seeing the firm grow with the increasing number of offices throughout the country.

Mr. Field has built a reputation for aggressively defending all aspects of each case, while keeping the client informed at each phase of litigation. He feels that it is important in terms of risk management, to educate the client while defending the claim to avoid future similar claims. The ultimate goal is to defend cases cost efficiently. He believes in establishing a cooperative relationship with his clients by learning the inner workings of their businesses, which greatly assists in defending their case.

Born and raised in Bala Cynwyd, PA, Mr. Field graduated from Lower Merion High School. He resides with his wife Deborah Heggarty and son in Marlton, NJ where he coaches youth street hockey and roller hockey. He also enjoys skiing, music concerts of all types and playing guitar.
