Lawyer Ratings

Steven N. Cherry has been practicing law since 1994, and has spent most of his legal career at MSZL&M. His success stems from being involved with claims from the ground up. Particularly with regard to insurance coverage issues, he believes in the importance of considering scenarios which might arise   before there is a declaratory judgment action, so that he can assist in evaluating and recommending courses of action in order to minimize the risks.

He has found that continual communication is the key to balancing the varied interests of multiple constituencies. By keeping a constant two-way flow of information with each and all of the various parties involved, and inviting input and questions from clients and insurance carriers, many seemingly competing issues can be minimized.

A lifelong resident of Philadelphia, he enjoys bicycle riding along Kelly Drive, playing piano, listening to music, seeing live music, urban exploration, food adventures, and all things intellectual.
